

Alliance of Citizens for Edmonds Membership Form

Membership is open to anyone who supports the goals of ACE as stated in our Articles of Incorporation, which are as follows:

1. To retain the residential, small town atmosphere of Edmonds and protect it from harmful development.
2. To preserve the low-level architecture of Edmonds, which allows minimal obstructions of views and sunlight, and to preserve other amenities that make Edmonds a desirable home.
3. To retain a healthy business community in Edmonds.
4. To encourage types of housing and business development which are harmonious with the character of Edmonds.
5. To identify and support public works and other civic projects which improve the safety, beauty and livability of our community.
6. To encourage the preservation and restoration of older houses and buildings which are reflective of the history of Edmonds.
7. To protect the natural environment of the city, including its streams, trees, beaches, parks and open spaces, from uses that adversely affect and impair its use and enjoyment by the people of Edmonds.
